SILENI ESTATES

SILENI ESTATES WINERY

Established in 1998 by Graeme Avery and Grant Edmonds, Sileni Estates has gained a reputation as a producer of ultra premium quality wines that have achieved world wide acclaim. The Sileni Estates Winery is named after the Sileni who featured in Roman mythology alongside Bacchus, the Roman God of Wine. Just like the team at Sileni Estates, and a good many of our customers, the mythical Sileni enjoyed good wine, good food and good company.

In addition to producing quality wines, Sileni Estates is a mecca for wine and food lovers.

Our state-of-the-art winery complex incorporates an award winning Restaurant, conference and function facilities, a purpose built Culinary School, gourmet Cellar Store and The Village Press – New Zealand's largest producers of extra virgin olive oil. These facilities combine to make Sileni Estates one of New Zealand's top wine and food destination experiences.
