CHARDONNAY

HAWKE'S BAY • WINE OF NEW ZEALAND

"Lightly oaked, this fruit driven wine has layers of citrus and stone fruit flavours. The oak characters are subtle, adding interest without dominating, fine acidity adds length and balance. Delicious with risotto, fresh pasta or seafood."

WINE THAT LOVES COMPANY

In ancient Greece the Sileni were companions of Dionysus, the god of wine, vineyards and theatre. When there was something to be celebrated, the Sileni were always on hand to encourage enjoyment of delicious food, great wine and social interaction. Named in their honour, Sileni Estates produces a range of wines made to be great collaborators, with a talent for enhancing flavours and textures.

VINEYARD	The Cellar Selection Chardonnay is grown on a variety of soil types in Hawke's Bay, including gravels, silt and clay loam. The different characteristics of these sites provide depth and complexity of flavour.
WINEMAKING NOTES	After harvest at optimum ripeness, grapes were destemmed and gently pressed. Cool ferment temperatures retain fruit aromatics and flavour. A small portion of the blend is aged in French oak barriques. Fifty percent of the blend underwent a malolactic fermentation to introduce some creaminess and complexity.
